The circumference of the ankle is measured around the malleolus

Indications

It is used in cricks, luxations, ankle articulation instability.

Description

The orthosis is made of textile, provided with:

- 2 lateral pads that fit the malleolus (polyethylene foam)
- 2 elastic straps crossed around the ankle for compression and fastening.

The heel area is open.

Hook and loop fastener on the front side.

Height: 21 cm.

The orthosis is an ankle support, and the two elastic straps around the ankle exert additional compression, ensuring stability while wearing.

Composition

Laminated textile: PU Polyurethane – 60%, CO Cotton – 23%, PA Polyamide – 17%. The laminated textile ensemble behaves like a moisture regulator, ensuring a quick transfer of the moisture to outward.
